

JCS STUDENT WRITING CENTER

The student-led writing center, sponsored by NHS, promotes creativity and collaboration in writing to pursue academic excellence. Open to all JCS students in grades 7-12.

What do we provide?

- Walk-in peer support for writing, researching, editing, and/or revisions. Just come when the writing center is open, and we will have students who are ready and willing to help you (no appointment necessary). You may also join via zoom if you are a virtual student:
Meeting ID: 954 1392 0655
Passcode: SWC
- Online peer support for editing and revisions. If you are unable to join us in the classroom/zoom during our open sessions, you can communicate via email (studentwritingcenter@jupiterchristian.org). Our NHS students will review your documents to provide feedback and recommendations.
- Subject area tutors by request only. Do you need help in science, math, Spanish, etc? We will partner you with a member of NHS who would love to help you succeed.

What should you bring?

- In-person support:
 - Writing:
 - Your essay
 - A description of your assignment
 - The rubric
 - Tutoring:
 - Textbook
 - Homework
- Online support- email the following to studentwritingcenter@jupiterchristian.org:
 - Your essay
 - A description of your assignment
 - The rubric

* Your assignment will be reviewed the next day that the writing center is open.

Disclaimer: we will do our best to provide solid, educated feedback, but we do not promise an A as this is a student-led tutoring center.
